TO ADD A SPOUSE TO A VETERAN'S AWARD:

Marriage by Ceremony

VA will require additional evidence* to establish a spouse; if

- you do not reside within a state, territory, or other possession of the United States,
- your entries on the application conflict with other information you provided, and the discrepancies cannot be resolved through contact with you or a review of other information of record
- information of record raises questions regarding the validity of the marriage, or
- there is an indication of fraud or misrepresentation.

Additional Evidence:

- Primary evidence of a marriage consists of a copy or abstract of the public record of a marriage, or a copy of the church record of a marriage, containing sufficient data to identify the
 - parties involved,
 - date (month, day, and year) and place (city and state, county and state, or city and country) of the marriage, and
 - number of prior marriages for each spouse, if not shown on the official record.
- If primary evidence of a marriage is unavailable, a marriage may still be established by submission of the following evidence in the order of preference shown below;
 - an official report from your branch of service regarding a marriage that occurred while you were in service,
 - an affidavit of the clergyman or magistrate who officiated in the marriage ceremony,
 - a certified copy of the original certificate of marriage,
 - affidavits or certified statements signed by two or more witnesses that attended the marriage ceremony, or
 - any other secondary evidence that reasonably supports the assertion that a valid marriage occurred.

Note: The process to establish a same sex or transgender marriage is no different than the process to establish a marriage between the opposite sex.

Establishing a Common-Law Marriage

In some states it is possible to contract a marriage without a ceremony and without registration of the marriage. This type of marriage is referred to as a common-law marriage.

VA may recognize a common-law marriage that was considered valid in the state in which it took place. A common law marriage generally requires an agreement between the parties to be married, cohabitation, and holding themselves out to the public as married.

Evidence that must be submitted to claim a common-law marriage:

- VA Form 21-4170 completed by the veteran
- VA Form 21-4170 completed by the veteran's spouse in the common-law marriage
- Two VA Forms 21P-4171, each completed by two different persons that can provide their personal observations about the parties to the common-law marriage and the relationship that exists/existed between them, and
- Copies of the birth certificates of any children born of the common-law marriage.

Tribal Ceremony

VA may recognize marriages performed in accordance with tribal custom.

To establish a tribal marriage, a claimant must provide all of the following items:

- Affidavits from the parties married by tribal custom that include the name of the tribe, date (month, day, and year) of marriage, place (city and state, county and state, or city and country) where the marriage ceremony occurred, and name/ mailing address of the person who performed the ceremony.
- Affidavits from at least two people who were present at the time the tribal marriage ceremony took place. The affidavits must include the name of the tribe, date (month, day, and year) of marriage, place (city and state, county and state, or city and country) where the marriage ceremony occurred, and name/ mailing address of the person who performed the ceremony.
- Affidavit from the person who performed the ceremony, showing the date (month, day, and year) and place (city and state, county and state, or city and country) where the marriage ceremony occurred, and that person's authority for conducting the ceremony.

Proxy Marriage

A proxy marriage is a wedding in which one or both of the individuals being united are not physically present, and are instead represented by other persons. If both partners are absent, a double proxy wedding occurs.

Marriage by proxy typically occurs when a couple wishes to marry, but one or both partners cannot attend for reasons such as military service, imprisonment, or travel restrictions; or when a couple lives in a jurisdiction in which they cannot legally marry.

All documents/certificates issued in connection with a claimed proxy marriage must be provided to establish a proxy marriage for VA purposes.

Note: The validity of a proxy marriage is dependent upon the law in effect at the location in which the proxy marriage was performed.

Spousal Aid & Attendance (A&A)

- VA may pay additional benefits to a Veteran for a spouse with severe medical need/disability (ies). To claim the additional benefits, a
- Veteran must complete a VA Form 21-2680 and submit medical evidence showing his or her spouse
- is blind or so nearly blind as to have corrected visual acuity of 5/200 or less in both eyes or concentric contraction of the visual field to 5 degrees or less; or
- is a patient in a nursing home because of mental or physical incapacity (by completing VA Form 21-0779); or
- requires the aid of another person in order to perform personal functions required in everyday living, such as bathing, feeding, dressing, attending to the wants of nature, adjusting prosthetic devices, or protecting him or her from the hazards of his or her daily environment.

TO ADD A CHILD TO A BENEFICIARY/CLAIMANT'S AWARD:

Unmarried Child

A person must be unmarried in order to be considered a child for VA purposes.

VA may continue paying additional benefits for an unmarried child

- until the child reaches age
 - 18, or
 - 23, if the child is attending an approved school, or
- indefinitely if the child becomes permanently incapable of self-support before his/her 18th birthday.

VA will require a copy of the child's birth certificate; if

- you do not reside within a state, territory or other possession of the United States,
- your entries on the application conflict with other information you provided, and the discrepancies cannot be resolved through contact with you or a review of other information of record, or
- there is an indication of fraud or misrepresentation.

School-Age Child

You must complete and submit VA Form 21-674 to claim additional benefits for a child who is

- between the ages of 18 and 23, and
- attending school.

Note:

- Claimants with more than one school-age child must complete a separate VA Form 21-674 for each child.
- VA Form 21-674 is used to report
 - school attendance,
 - a change in the educational facility a child is attending, and/or
 - a change in the date a school-age child plans to stop attending school.

Stepchild

VA will ask you to provide a copy of your stepchild's birth certificate, showing the names of both parents, before it will add the stepchild; if

- you do not reside within a state, territory, or other possession of the United States,
- your entries on the application conflict with other information you provided, and the discrepancies cannot be resolved through contact with you or a review of other information of record.

- information of record raises questions regarding the validity of the marriage of the stepchild's biological or adoptive parent to the veteran, or
- there is an indication of fraud or misrepresentation.

Provide a copy of the decree of adoption or adoptive placement agreement if the veteran's spouse is the adoptive parent of the stepchild.

Note:

- VA may pay benefits to or for a stepchild only if the stepchild is (or was at the time of the veteran's death, if the veteran is deceased) a member of the veteran's household.
- If the veteran and stepchild do not reside together (or were not residing together when the veteran died, if the veteran is deceased), the stepchild remains a member of the veteran's household if
 - they live (or lived, if the veteran is deceased) apart for medical reasons, to attend school, or to fulfill a military service obligation, or
 - the veteran provides (or provided, if the veteran is deceased) at least half of the stepchild's support.

Adopted Child

A claim for additional benefits for an adopted child must include a copy of the

- final decree of adoption,
- adoptive placement agreement,
- interlocutory decree of adoptions, or
- revised birth certificate.

Note: VA cannot pay additional benefits for a grandchild or foster child unless the claimant submits evidence (referenced above) showing the veteran adopted the grand/foster child.

Child Incapable of Self-Support

VA may pay additional benefits for a child beyond his/her 23rd birthday if VA determines the child became permanently incapable of self-support before his/her 18th birthday.

A claim for additional benefits for a child who is incapable of self-support must include

- medical evidence showing a permanent mental or physical disability existed before his/her 18th birthday, and
- a statement from an attending physician showing the nature and extent of the child's physical or mental impairment.

REMOVAL OF A SPOUSE FROM A VETERAN'S AWARD:

Divorce or Death of a Spouse

VA must remove a spouse from a veteran's award when the spouse dies or divorces/annuls the marriage to the veteran.

Note:

- Veterans in receipt of disability compensation are not required to report to VA a separation or estrangement from their spouse, as it will have no effect on their award.
- Veterans remain entitled to additional benefits for a stepchild after divorcing the stepchild's biological or adoptive parent, as long as the veteran provides at least half of the stepchild's support.

REMOVAL OF A CHILD FROM A BENEFICIARY'S AWARD:

Married Child

A person must be unmarried to qualify as a child for VA purposes. Therefore, a person of any age who marries ceases to be a child for VA purposes.

Note: If a child marries, and then the marriage is terminated by annulment or declared void, VA may resume the payment of additional benefits for the child.

Child Who Is Between the Ages of 18 and 23 and Not Attending School

To be considered a school child for VA purposes a person must be between the ages of 18 and 23 and attending a VA-accredited educational facility.

Stepchild

VA must remove a stepchild from a veteran's award when the stepchild ceases being a member of the veteran's household.

Note: The awarding of legal custody of a stepchild to someone other than the veteran will not affect the additional benefits to which the veteran is entitled for that child, as long as the stepchild remains a member of the veteran's household.

Child Given Up for Adoption

In most cases, a beneficiary who gives up a child for adoption is no longer entitled to additional benefits for that child.

VA will use the most beneficial effective date when removing the veteran's child that has been given up for adoption. The date (month, day, and year) that the child was given up for adoption must be provided. Use Section IX, Item 25, Remarks to provide this information.

Death of a Child

VA must remove a child from a beneficiary's award when the child dies.

REMOVAL OF A DEPENDENT PARENT DUE TO DEATH:

Dependent Parent

VA must remove a dependent parent from a veteran's award when a parent dies.
